PREFACE.

The past year marks an important epoch in the history of our church, in that it became a corporate body and made many changes in the letter, if not in the spirit of its creed, in its mode of government and in its several departments of work. The above changes, coupled with the fact that the records of the church were lost in the burning of Holden's Block, Jan. 28, 1894, seemed to demand the preparation of a new manual. June 7, 1894, the church voted to have a new manual of the church prepared and published under the charge of the Pastor and Clerk.

On account of the loss of the records, the editors have thought it advisable at this time to preserve as much as possible of the past history of the church for the benefit of the future, and have made the historical sketch and other data quite complete. Should it be found that any names have been omitted from the historical list, it will be due to the loss of the records as above noted.

In preparing the work the code of By-Laws and the Course of Bible Study have been elaborated by the Pastor, while the remaining portion has fallen to the hand of the Clerk.

REV. FRANK E. JENKINS, Pastor.
O. P. ALLEN, Clerk.

Palmer, Mass., May 6, 1895.

Historical Sketch.

THE FIRST CHURCH IN PALMER.

THE early settlers of Palmer, like those in other New England towns, were mindful of their religious duties, for as soon as they were established in their rude homes they erected a meeting house, which was first occupied in November, 1735. In order to give the reader some tangible idea of the appearance of the first church in Palmer, we have been to some pains in obtaining a cut, taken from a drawing made by Miss Isabel Gordon of Springfield, under the direction of Dr. W. H. Stowe, which has restored the building as nearly as possible from plans and descriptions found on the old town records, and kindly loaned by Dr. Stowe for this purpose.

As there were a number of rival sites on which to locate the building, the matter was determined by lot, the Rev. Mr. Harvey officiating after solemn prayer, by which means the location was fixed at the Old Centre. This first meeting house was a plain structure indeed, measuring 30 x 36 feet, and one story high. It was without ceiling or plastering, and furnished no means for warmth in the cold season. The only external adornment was the singular emblematical design placed in the gable over the front entrance, peculiar, it is said, to the Scotch Presbyterians. For more than three-score years this miniature house was the Shiloh of Palmer, around which revolved the religious and political life of the town, and where the momentous matters of church and state were discussed and decided. It was used for a place of public worship and town meetings until 1798, when it was sold and a new and larger church was built and located near the former one and dedicated the same year. This later edifice remained until a few years ago, when it was sold and torn down. Just when the first church in Palmer was organized the records do not indicate, but probably about 1730. The first settled minister was Rev. John Harvey, who was ordained June 5, 1734. For want of a better place the services were held under the spreading branches of a white oak tree near Cedar Swamp meadow. He resigned the pastorate in 1748.

The next pastor was Rev. Robert Burns, who was settled in 1753, and as his ministrations were not satisfactory he was dismissed in 1757. Then followed the notably long and successful pastorate of Rev. Moses Baldwin, extending from 1761 to June 18, 1811. He was a faithful and earnest pastor. He died in Palmer Nov. 2, 1813, aged 81. At the close of Mr. Baldwin's pastorate the town voted to change the form of church government from that of the Presbyterian, under which it had existed some 80 years, to that of the Congregational.

Mr. Baldwin's successor was Rev. Simeon Colton, who was ordained and installed June 18, 1811. The records show that one hundred and twenty members were added to the church during his pastorate, which closed by his request in 1821. He was followed by Rev. Henry H. F. Sweet in 1825, whose short and useful life was closed by death in 1827.

Rev. J. K. Ware was settled in 1827 and remained until 1831, followed by Rev. Samuel Backus in 1832, who asked for a dismission in 1841. Rev. Moses K. Cross was settled in 1842, and proved a very acceptable pastor. He remained until 1849, when failing health caused his resignation. He still lives in the enjoyment of a hale, hearty old age, in Waterloo, Iowa. It was during his pastorate that the old meeting house was abandoned and the church divided, as narrated below.

The Second Congregational Church.

THE opening of the Western, — now the Boston and Albany, — Railroad about the year 1838, created a new village center at the station. Business and population increased rapidly; the old Centre began to show signs of age; the village of Thorndike was becoming a power in social and civil affairs, and as a natural result each of the two new villages claimed a right to special religious privileges.

In 1847 an amicable division was effected, Rev. Moses K. Cross remaining with the mother church, and fifty-four members withdrawing, with a view of forming a new church at the Depot Village. The Second Church was organized April 1, 1847, by an Ecclesiastical Council called for the purpose, with a membership of fifty-seven, which number was increased to sixty-nine before the close of the year. For nearly a year the church had no pastor, but the desk was supplied by Rev. Dr. Ely of Monson, and others. In January, 1848, the church by unanimous vote extended a call to Mr. Thomas Wilson to become its pastor, and on Feb. 29th he was ordained and installed pastor. Mr. Wilson was born in Paisley, Scotland, June 15, 1822, and came with his father and family to

REV. THOMAS WILSON.

Lowell in 1829. He fitted there in the high school for college, graduated at Dartmouth in 1844, and at Andover Theological Seminary in 1847. He remained with the church in Palmer until July 1, 1852, when he asked for a dismissal on account of inadequate support.

During his pastorate forty-six members were added to the church. His ministry was a very successful one, and he left his first charge respected and beloved by all. He removed to Westford, Mass., where he was installed May 4th, 1853, and dismissed Feb. 13th, 1856. Then he received a call to become the pastor of the First Congregational Church in Stoughton, Mass., where he was installed March 13, 1856, and dismissed March 13, 1876. On account of ill health he rested from ministerial labors for nearly a year, then assumed the pastorate of the Congregational Church in Eaton, N. Y., March 25, 1877, where he remained until about two years ago, when he deemed it best to retire to a well-earned rest from ministerial labor, to Waterville, N. Y., where he now resides. After the retirement of Mr. Wilson the church was without a pastor for some two years, but was able to secure the services of Rev. W. W. Belden for most of the time.

In September, 1854, the church extended a call to Rev. Joseph Vaille,

REV. JOSEPH VAILLE, D. D.

D. D., of Somers, Ct., to become its pastor; the call was accepted, and on Dec. 7th, 1854, he was installed the second pastor. Dr. Vaille was born in Hadlyme, Ct., July 28th, 1790. He graduated at Yale in the class of 1811, and was ordained to the ministry Feb. 2d, 1814, and had his first settlement in Brimfield; his second in Portland, Me., for three years; after which he received a second call to Brimfield; then for four years was a successful solicitor for Amherst College; then was pastor in Somers, Ct., where he was installed Aug. 6th, 1845. His pastorates covered thirty-seven years prior to his settlement in Palmer. After a pastorate in Palmer of about thirteen years he was dismissed at his request Feb 12th, 1868. He was elected a Representative from the Palmer District to the Massachusetts Legislature, and died in office Feb. 22, 1869, leaving an honored name as a rich legacy to the people he loved so well. Dr. Vaille was a true gentleman of the old school, dignified, but with a heart full of sympathy and tenderness. He was quick at repartee, and enjoyed genuine wit in others. His memory is still gratefully cherished in the parish he presided over so long.

Rev. Bradford M. Fullerton was ordained and installed the third pastor Feb. 12th, 1868. Mr. Fullerton was born in Bridgeport, Ct., April 13th, 1837. He graduated at Amherst in 1861, and at Andover Theological Seminary in 1865. After graduating he was engaged in editorial work on the Worcester Transcript and the Hartford Post a few months each, and on the Norwich Bulletin two and one-half years. After a successful pastorate of more than thirteen years he was dismissed at his request July 6th, 1881. During his charge one hundred and ninety-five members were added to the church, largely the result of revivals. Besides his pastoral cares

REV. BRADFORD M. FULLERTON.

Mr. Fullerton took a large interest in public affairs, being for many years an efficient member of the school board. In his retirement the parish lost an efficient pastor and a man of scholarly attainments. Soon after leaving Palmer he accepted a call from the Trinitarian Congregational Church in Waltham, where he remained until the fall of 1893, when on account of failing health he resigned the pastorate. The faculty of Amherst College conferred upon Mr. Fullerton the deserving title of D. D. in 1891.

After Mr. Fullerton's resignation the church remained without a pastor for nearly two years, the desk being supplied by different preachers.

Rev. Pleasant Hunter, Jr., the fourth pastor, was ordained and installed June 7th, 1883. He was born in Wiseburg, Md. He was graduated from the Boston University, and from Hartford Theological Seminary in 1883. After a successful pastorate of three years he was dismissed at his request July 25, 1886. Mr. Hunter, during his brief ministrations, had won a large place in the hearts of his people and was allowed to go with keen regret. On leaving Palmer he became the pastor of the Central Congregational Church at Newtonville, Mass., then accepted a call to the Presbyterian Church in Newark, N. J., and later became the pastor of one of the largest Presbyterian Churches in Minneapolis, Minn., where he still remains. He has also had conferred upon him the title of D. D. by Princeton College.

Rev. Howard W. Pope, the fifth pastor, was installed Nov. 30, 1886. He was born Jan. 21, 1849, in New Haven, Ct. He was graduated from Yale in 1871, and from Yale Theological School in 1874. He was ordained and installed pastor of the Congregational Church in Bridgeport, Conn., in 1874, where he remained until he accepted a call to become pastor of the Congregational Church in

REV. HOWARD W. POPE.

He graduated from Walton Academy in 1874, from Williams College in 1878, and from Hartford Theological Seminary in 1881. He commenced his pastoral work at Charlton, Mass., where he was ordained, May 18th,

REV. PLEASANT HUNTER.

Manchester, Ct., in 1881. From this church he was dismissed at his request in 1886. He was dismissed from the Palmer church at his request May 23, 1892, and accepted a call from the Congregational Church in Somersworth, N. H., where he remained until April, 1894, when he resigned, to accept the position of assistant secretary of the International Christian Workers' Association, with headquarters at New Haven, Conn.

Rev. Frank E. Jenkins, the sixth and present pastor, was installed April 19th, 1893. He was born in Walton, N. Y., Nov. 26, 1854.

1881. Resigning his charge there in August, 1882, he removed to South Coventry, Ct., where he remained until December, 1886, when he engaged in the work of the American Missionary Association, which included missionary work among the mountain whites of the South, and service as pastor of the Congregational Church and principal of the Williamsburg Academy of Williamsburg, Ky.; was field superintendent of the A. M. A. schools and churches in the Southern States, and became pastor of the People's Congregational Church in New Decatur, Ala., Jan. 1, 1890, which pastorate he resigned in 1893, on accepting the call to the Palmer church.

In concluding this outline sketch of our church, I may be pardoned for adding some thoughts germane to the subject which could not properly be given in the body of the sketch. Counted by years, our church is not an old one, for its existence is embraced within the scope of half a century, and my personal knowledge of it covers but 35 years.

The founders of our church have all joined the great majority, save one (Mrs. Eliza W. Breckenridge). The membership of the church has nearly changed since I first knew it ; a new generation has filled the places made vacant by those who have gone to their reward or to other churches ; ten only remain who were members 35 years ago ; these changes convey their own story, how fully death and removal have done their work. With all its changes our church has been happy in its choice of pastors ; all have been men of scholarly attainments, trained in collegiate and theological institutions ; they have come to us well fitted to perform the work assigned them. They have been actuated by that safe spirit of conservatism which has led to success. Under their leadership our church has been a progressive one. Thirty-five years ago the old-time methods obtained in some degree. During the pastorate of Dr. Vaile he preached three sermons each Sunday, and occupied nearly all of the time at the mid-week meeting, calling occasionally on one or two of the deacons to lead in prayer ; no others were expected to take a part. But as if to atone in some measure for the formal prayer meeting, the Rev. Doctor was a frequent visitor among his parishioners, and carried joy wherever he went by his genial presence and words of cheer. Mr. Fullerton had broken away from the stereotyped past and introduced a new order of things : not only the male portion, but the gentler members were urged to take an active part in the prayer meeting. This was a great innovation, but the church entered into the spirit of it with great benefit to all concerned.

In former times it had not been thought wise to urge the youth to become members of the church, much less for them to take an active part in public worship, but the change for their benefit in our church has been a progressive one. At first it was thought that the Sunday school was doing all that could be expected, but at last the Young People's Meeting was established, led by some one especially adapted for the work ; then came the Endeavor Society, the best of all, which society is now the hope of the church ; then followed the Junior Endeavor Society, the grand results of which the future years alone can tell. Under our present pastor the methods for work in all departments have been broadened, and plans laid for better work than ever before, which, with God's blessing, must tell for good.

Our church has long been noted for its encouragement of legitimate intellectual efforts in other lines, outside of strictly religious work. And this is right, for the mind should be fortified with a correct knowledge of history, science and philosophy, which, with spiritual experience, goes to make the complete intellectual man and woman. No Christian, who can command the opportunity, ought to plead ignorance of the leading matters which agitate the world of thought. Our pastors and many of our members have been noted in their leadership in our village societies, organized from time to time for intellectual pursuits. With one exception these societies have been undenominational, and participated in by members of all our churches. This is right, for it serves to break up that narrowness of feeling which otherwise might be engendered. These societies, in their way, have done much good, quickening thought, broadening the understanding, and inspiring the young to search for themselves in new fields of knowledge, and draw them away from vain pursuits. I know personally of those whom these societies have inspired to overcome many difficulties, and given collegiate and theological training. It is laudable for the church to enter into this field, and help lead the rising generation into all fields of useful knowledge, thereby showing she has a sympathy broad enough to include all that is useful and ennobling.

THE DIACONATE.

For many years the Deacons were chosen for life, or during their membership in the church, but during the pastorate of Mr. Pope this custom was changed, and the deacons have since then been chosen for a term of four years each. The following is a list of those who have filled the office of deacon since the organization of the church :

Benjamin Converse, chosen	April 9, 1847.
Lebeus Chapin, chosen	April 9, 1847.
Wilson Brainerd, chosen	1851.
Calvin Nutting, chosen	1851.
Henry A. Moore, chosen	1867.
Freeman S. Foster, chosen	1869.
Hiram Converse, chosen	1869.
Alfred E. Park, chosen	1883.
George F. Brown, chosen	1883.
W. A. Breckenridge, chosen	1887.
Chas. W. Bennett, chosen	1887.
Geo. H. Hastings, chosen	1888.
James B. Shaw, chosen	1894.

Under our new corporation rules, adopted in 1894, these four Deacons were elected Jan. 3, 1895 :

W. A. Breckenridge for one year, term expires Jan. 1, 1896.

C. W. Bennett for two years, term expires Jan. 1, 1897.

J. B. Shaw for three years, term expires Jan. 1, 1898.

G. H. Hastings for four years, term expires Jan. 1, 1899.

CLERKS OF THE CHURCH.

The Clerks of the church have officiated as follows : A. V. Blanchard, 1847 ; Rev. Thomas Wilson, 1848 to 1852 ; S. H. Hall, 1852 to 1854 ; A. Blodgett, 1854 ; Rev. J. Vaille, 1854 to 1868 ; Rev. B. M. Fullerton, 1868 to 1881 ; S. H. Hellyar, 1881 to 1885 ; Rev. P. Hunter, Jr., 1885 to 1886 ; O. P. Allen, 1886 to the present.

THE CHURCH EDIFICE.

When the church was first organized, meetings were held in McGilvray's hall in the Depot Village, then just starting into life and activity. It soon became apparent, however, that a more commodious place was imperatively needed. Two rival sites were offered as gifts on which to build a church ; one by Col. Cyrus Knox, near the present Ridge's Food factory, and the other by Capt. A. N. Dewey, and the latter was chosen. As early as October, 1846, a paper had been circulated for the purpose of obtaining subscriptions to 160 shares of stock at $25 per share, for the building of a church. In a short time the whole amount was taken and about $2500 paid in. The stockholders were to rent the church to the society at a rate of not more than 8 per cent on the cost thereof, which amount was to be divided as a dividend among the stockholders.

The corner stone of the church was laid with appropriate ceremonies in the month of May, 1847, by Rev. Dr. Ely of Monson. The church was dedicated Wednesday, December 22d, of the same year, "to the worship of God, by appropriate solemnities, viz :—Invocation and reading of the scriptures by Mr. Thomas Wilson (licenciate) ; introductory prayer by Rev. C. B. Kittredge of Monson ; sermon by Rev. E. Russell of Springfield ; dedicatory prayer and benediction by Rev. Dr. Ely of Monson. The exercises were exceedingly interesting, and an additional zest was given to them from the fact that they occurred on a day hallowed by such sacred association to every lover of the Puritans. The sermon on Psalm 96: 6, 'Honor and majesty are before Him, strength and beauty are in His sanctuary,' was characterized by that bold, vigorous and manly style for which the preacher is distinguished."

The company, called "The Palmer Depot Church Corporation," which was outside of the church society, had incurred something of a debt in the erection of the church, and in 1853 the building was sold at auction to satisfy a claim and was bid off by D. F. McGilvray for $2495. In 1854 the church was purchased by the Ecclesiastical Society, by whom it has since been owned. The original cost of the church was $5000. In 1870 the church was thoroughly remodeled at a cost of nearly $8000, and was rededicated February 23, 1871. A few years later a pipe organ was put in by subscription at a cost of $1500. In 1886 the unsightly vestry was remodeled and put into tasteful shape at a cost of about $800. In 1876 a parsonage was erected on the church grounds, at an expense of $4000. In 1889 substantial sidewalks approaching the church and parsonage were laid down, and paid for by funds devised by the late Mrs. Maria Warner of Palmer.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized April 8, 1852, since which time it has maintained a vigorous existence. Last year the school made a new departure by introducing the Blakeslee Graded Lesson System of Bible Study. This year the school has entered upon a new era in its history by adopting a plan of study which will require fourteen years for its completion; a plan which, if carried out, ought to fully equip its members with a knowledge of Bible doctrine and history. The school has an efficient corps of teachers, and numbers 258, with an average attendance of 174, including the Home Department. It also has a Home Department for those who are unable to attend at church. Its officers are elected annually by the church. The school has had these superintendents: Arza Blodgett, for 1852; Jonathan Webber, 1853-54; Azel Breckenridge, 1855; Henry A. Moore, 1856. From 1857 the superintendents were chosen by the Sunday School, and as no records were kept the list is not complete; but during that interval of seventeen years the following gentlemen occupied the position, viz: W. C. Child; Dr. Wm. Holbrook, Dr. E. B. Lyon, J. D. Blanchard, Dea. Freeman S. Foster, H. J. Lawrence, E. N. Montague, and possibly others. Since 1873 the superintendents have been chosen by the church as follows: O. L. Slader for 1874-75-76-77; F. B. Shepard, 1878-79-80; Col. H. R. Stoughton, 1881-82-83; O. P. Allen, 1884-85-86; L. E. Moore, 1887;

J. B. Shaw, 1888-89-90-91-92-93; L. H. Gager, 1894-95. A select library belongs to the church and is devoted to the use of the school. The offerings of the school are appropriated by vote of the school in aid of missionary and other work.

OUR COURSE OF BIBLE STUDY.

ADOPTED SEPTEMBER, 1894.

Our pastor has formulated a course of study for our Sunday School, which has attracted no little notice from the press and others interested in such matters. The editor of the Religious Herald says, in calling attention to the article on Graded Sunday Schools by Rev. F. E. Jenkins, that it presents "many important and practical improvements in Sunday School work." Rev. Addison P. Foster, D. D., says, in the Advance: "The Sunday School of the church at Palmer, Mass., of which Rev. Frank E. Jenkins is the efficient pastor, is probably the first in the land to adopt a carefully graded system of study covering a long term of years. This course is based on the Blakeslee Series of Lessons, but it has boldly mapped out the work of the whole school, not for one year, or three years only, but for thirteen, or, if we may say, sixteen." "The experiment at Palmer will be watched with intense interest, and it may prove that Mr. Jenkins is the pioneer in a great and well-nigh revolutionary change in our Sunday School methods."

MUSIC.

The music department of the church service deserves more than a passing notice, for it is an important factor in worship. As a matter of course a choir was formed soon after the church was organized. Almer Allen was the first chorister, and sustained that position from 1847 to 1850. This was the time when stringed instruments were employed in the choir, and the few surviving members of our society who worshipped at that period recall the fact that James Burnham played the double bass viol, Horace Clark, single bass, E. B. Shaw and John Allen, violins. Dr. Wm. Holbrook was musical director from 1850 to 1860. His choir numbered about forty singers, the surviving members of which are Mrs. Holbrook, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. L. E. Child, Mrs. J. S. Loomis, Mrs. George Robinson, James Burnham and D. W. Mason. At that time the choir was located in the rear of the audience. It was the Doctor's frequent custom to invite the young people to engage in singing exercises during the week, by which means a knowledge of music was developed and fresh material furnished for the large choir. In 1852 the viols and violins were discarded for a melodeon. Neither leader nor player received compensation in those days; but at the close of his decade of service, the Doctor was taken by surprise at the close of the service one Sabbath evening by the presentation of a large family Bible and a silver cup on the behalf of the congregation, as a testimonial of regard. Prior to that Charles Knight, now an M. D. in Peekskill, N. Y., was presented with a silk hat by Major Morgan, for his faithful service at the melodeon. In due time the melodeon gave place to a small organ, which furnished instrumental music until the present pipe organ was procured. Charles Breckenridge succeeded Dr. Holbrook as director of music and organist, for which he received about forty dollars per year as compensation. As recalled, his successors were Alvin Hastings, H. P. Holden, Jerre Dutton, O. L. Slader, Penn Tyler, W. F. Miller, C. F. Orcutt, C. A. Brown, Mrs. H. E. Huntley and Mrs. Rufus Flynt. During these years the make-up of the choir has vacelated between the chorus and quartette, but has always maintained a high degree of excellence.

BENEFICIARIES.

Collections in this church were first instituted April 20, 1855, and from that time to 1878 were effected by special collectors, who were given specified portions of the town to canvass. In 1878 the envelope plan and weekly voluntary offering was adopted, and continued in vogue until the present year (1895), when a new and more acceptable plan has been devised and adopted, by which the offerings of the first and third Sundays in each month will be devoted to defraying the expenses of the church. The offerings of the second Sunday in each month will be under the direction of the advisory committee; those of the fourth Sunday will be devoted to the different missionary societies as designated by vote of the church each year, and the offerings of the fifth Sunday will be under the advisory committee. By this plan it is hoped all requirements will be met. Our church has always been noted for its benefactions. Not a year passes without the shipment of valuable boxes of clothing to help the needy in the South or West, and no doubt this spirit of Christian sympathy will always continue.

FORM OF ADMISSION.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father, which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father, which is in heaven.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Dearly beloved, called of God to be his children through Jesus Christ our Lord, you are here that, in the presence of God and his people, you may enter into the fellowship and communion of his church. You do truly repent of your sins; you heartily receive Jesus Christ as your crucified Saviour and risen Lord; you consecrate yourselves unto God and your life to his service; you accept his Word as your law, and his Spirit as your comforter and guide; and trusting in his grace to confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, you promise to do God's holy will, and to walk with this church in the truth and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Accepting, according to the measure of your understanding of it, the system of Christian truth held by the churches of our faith and order, and by this church into whose fellowship you now enter, you join with ancient saints, with the Church throughout the world, and with us, your fellow-believers, in humbly and heartily confessing your faith in the gospel, saying :—

I believe in God the FATHER Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord ; who was conceived by the HOLY GHOST, born of the Virgin Mary ; suffered under Pontias Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried ; the third day He rose from the dead ; He ascended into heaven ; and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the HOLY GHOST ; the holy catholic church, the communion of saints ; the forgiveness of sins ; the resurrection of the body ; and the life everlasting. Amen.

[Then should baptism be administered to those who have not been baptized. Then should those rise who would unite with the church by letter. To them the minister should say:]

Confessing the Lord whom we unitedly worship, you do now renew your self-consecration, and join with us cordially in this, our Christian faith and covenant.

[The members of the church present should rise.]

We welcome you into our fellowship. We promise to watch over you with Christian love. God grant that, loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared, while we dwell together on earth, for the perfect communion of the saints in heaven.

“ Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ : to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.”

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

I. We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible ;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who is of one substance with the Father ; by whom all things were made ;

And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who is sent from the Father and Son, and who together with the Father and Son is worshipped and glorified.

II. We believe that the Providence of God, by which he executes his eternal purposes in the government of the world, is in and over all events; yet so that the freedom and responsibility of man are not impaired, and sin is the act of the creature alone.

III. We believe that man was made in the image of God, that he might know, love, and obey God, and enjoy him forever; that our first parents by disobedience fell under the righteous condemnation of God; and that all men are so alienated from God that there is no salvation from the guilt and power of sin except through God's redeeming grace.

IV. We believe that God would have all men return to him; that to this end he has made himself known, not only through the works of nature, the course of his Providence, and the consciences of men, but also through supernatural revelations made especially to a chosen people, and above all, when the fullness of time was come, through Jesus Christ his Son.

V. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the record of God's revelations of himself in the work of redemption; that they were written by men under the special guidance of the Holy Spirit; that they are able to make wise unto salvation; and that they constitute the authoritative standard by which religious teaching and human conduct are to be regulated and judged.

VI. We believe that the love of God to sinful men has found its highest expression in the redemptive work of his Son; who became man, uniting his divine nature with our human nature in one person; who was tempted like other men, yet without sin; who, by his humiliation, his holy obedience, his sufferings, his death on the cross, and his resurrection, became a perfect Redeemer; whose sacrifice of himself for the sins of the world declares the righteousness of God, and is the sole and sufficient ground of forgiveness and of reconciliation with him.

VII. We believe that Jesus Christ, after he had risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, where, as the one Mediator between God and man, he carries forward his work of saving men; that he sends the Holy Spirit to convict them of sin, and to lead them to repentance and faith; and that those who through renewing grace turn to righteousness, and trust in Jesus Christ as their Redeemer, receive for his sake the forgiveness of their sins, and are made the children of God.

VIII. We believe that those who are thus regenerated and justified grow in sanctified character through fellowship with Christ, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the preserving grace of God.

IX. We believe that Jesus Christ came to establish among men the kingdom of God, the reign of truth and love, righteousness and peace; that to Jesus Christ, the Head of this kingdom, Christians are directly responsible in faith and conduct; and that to him all have immediate access without mediatorial or priestly intervention.

X. We believe that the church of Christ, invisible and spiritual, comprises all true believers, whose duty it is to associate themselves in churches, for the maintenance of worship, for the promotion of spiritual growth and fellowship, and for the conversion of men; that these churches, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures and in fellowship with one another, may determine — each for itself — their organization, statements of belief, and forms of worship; may appoint and set apart their own ministers, and should co-operate in the work which Christ has committed to them for the furtherance of the gospel throughout the world.

XI. We believe in the observance of the Lord's Day as a day of holy rest and worship; in the ministry of the Word; and in the two Sacraments which Christ has appointed for his Church: Baptism, to be administered to believers and their children, as a sign of cleansing from sin, of union to Christ, and of the impartation of the Holy Spirit; and the Lord's Supper, as a symbol of his atoning death, a seal of its efficacy, and a means whereby he confirms and strengthens the spiritual union and communion of believers with himself.

XII. We believe in the ultimate prevalence of the kingdom of Christ over all the earth; in the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; in the resurrection of the dead; and in a final judgment, the issues of which are everlasting punishment and everlasting life.

Section 3. All auxiliaries shall have a right to the use of the facilities of the church, subject always to adjustment by the advisory committee.

ARTICLE VIII. CONTRIBUTIONS.

Contributions shall be taken up for missionary and benevolent purposes at such times and in such a manner as the advisory committee may approve, subject to change by vote of the church.

ARTICLE IX. DISCIPLINE.

Section 1. In private grievances the rule in Matt. 18: 15-17 must be applied: "And if thy brother sin against thee, go show him his fault between thee and him alone; if he hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. And if he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the church: and if he refuse to hear the church also, let him be unto thee as the gentile and the publican."

Section 2. In public scandal or gross breach of covenant the advisory committee, without expressing its judgment, shall bring the case to the notice of the church in writing.

Section 3. In all cases brought before the church the charges shall be made in writing, and a copy of the same shall, in all cases where it is possible, be furnished the accused, who shall be given opportunity for a full hearing, provided such a hearing can be had.

Section 4. The discipline of the church may include public admonitions, suspension from church privileges, or ex-communication, according to the aggravation of the offense.

Section 5. When the gravity of the case seems to warrant or require, the church shall agree to call a mutual council of churches to advise in the matter.

ARTICLE X. SUSPENSION AND AMENDMENT.

Section 1. These By-Laws may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting.

Section 2. These By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting at any business meeting, in the call for which notice of the proposed amendment has been given.

Intellectual Life of Our Church.

WHILE the Spiritual life of every church is the first and most important factor to be fostered, yet the very next thing to be considered and encouraged is intelligence by means of liberal education furnished by our higher institutions of learning. The founders of our church did not all have the advantages now afforded for learning beyond the common school, but they were men and women of strong common sense and of more than average ability. Their descendants, and the more recent members of the church and Sunday School, have been more fortunate in some respects, in that they live in a time when broader avenues have opened for intellectual development.

The town high school has been elevated to a higher plane, and the lesser schools have arisen in sympathy with it, by which means the youthful mind has been quickened and given an impetus not known to former days, so that in the two last decades we count the college, academic and high school graduates from our society by scores, as against the meager few in all former years. The number of those who have been connected with our church or Sunday school who have had a collegiate, academic or high school education is quite notable, so it has been thought best to give a list, which has been made as complete as possible; if any names have been omitted, it has not been intentional, but for want of knowledge of the fact.

Nearly all whose names appear in the following lists were graduates, save a few who were educated before the system of graduating was adopted in academies and high schools, or in a few instances where a full course of study was not taken for some good reason.
